

Woodland Trust

Site Manager - Mid & West Wales

Full Time, Permanent

The Woodland Trust is looking for a Site Manager in our Wales team, to manage the Woodland Trust's sites, in Mid & West Wales, to high professional standards, in accordance with our conservation principles, management approach, policies and contracts, contributing to the Trust's strategic goals.

THE ROLE

- This is a key role in the Wales team to represent the Woodland Trust locally, managing a diverse portfolio of sites within Mid & West Wales, in line with the Trust's standards and ensuring the safety of our visitors, contractors and volunteers.
- The Site Manager will be responsible for building collaborative and impactful relationships with internal teams and external organisations, contractors, neighbours and interested parties, alongside managing groups of dedicated and passionate volunteers.
- Lead creative woodland management, ancient woodland restoration and people engagement projects, engaging stakeholders and being a strong advocate for our work and values.
- Carry out Woodland Condition/PAWS Assessments and monitoring to inform, write and implement long term management plans for the woods in the area of responsibility.
- A company car will be provided for this role.

THE CANDIDATE

- You'll need experience working in the land management sector, preferable in forestry or woodland conservation, engaging with a wide range of stakeholders including landowners, statutory and public bodies and local communities.
- You'll have experience of managing woodlands, managing tree safety and leading the delivery of complex woodland management projects.
- Contract and budget management experience, including tendering and appointing.
- Working knowledge of tree pests and diseases and the impacts to woodlands.
- You must have a proactive 'can-do' attitude, excellent communication skills, be commercially aware and able to build effective partnerships internally and externally.
- The role is based in Mid & West Wales and will require the successful candidate to travel across Wales with occasional UK travel. A full driving licence is required.

Benefits & Wellbeing: Joining our team means you'll be a big part of tackling environmental and climate issues. We take good care of our staff, offering support and training opportunities. We also offer:

- Enhanced Employer Pension
- Life Assurance
- Flexible & Hybrid Working Options
- Generous Annual Leave
- Enhanced Parental Pay
- Employee Assistance Programme

Closing Date: 21/05/2025 Location: Mid & West Wales
