Agricultural Liaison Officers (ALO) UK Wide

FGP Surveyors are a leading firm of Land Agents specialising in the Renewable Energy, Utilities, and Infrastructure sectors, delivering high-quality services to major corporate clients on sites across the UK.

As part of our continued growth, we are seeking enthusiastic individuals with an agricultural background to join our team as Trainee Agricultural Liaison Officers. This is an excellent opportunity to build a career in a specialist field, no prior liaison experience is necessary, as full training will be provided.

ABOUT THE ROLE:

As a Trainee Agricultural Liaison Officer, you'll work on a variety of projects in construction across the UK. Your responsibilities will include:

- Advising on and managing access to agricultural land
- Recording and inspecting land conditions
- Providing guidance on land reinstatement, soils, drainage, and accommodation works

This role is ideal for individuals with agricultural experience who are looking to apply their knowledge in a new and dynamic context.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

- Some background or experience in agriculture
- Good communication and interpersonal skills
- Basic IT proficiency
- A willingness to learn and travel nationwide
