

Stockperson Opportunity in Stroud, Gloucestershire

AT A GLANCE

- 100 acre regenerative, organic outside Stroud, Gloucestershire
- Livestock person responsible for care of cattle and poultry
- Permanent position
- Real living wage
- 5 days/week

Good Small Farms took over the management of Hammonds Farm in July 2021. The 100 acre farm is situated in the beautiful Cotswold countryside, just outside of Stroud. We are developing it as a mixed, regenerative farm that will include various farming enterprises focused on local food and fibre supply using agro-ecological approaches such as agroforestry. We are organic, B Corp and Pasture for Life certified.

We are looking for a motivated and hardworking person to join the team at Good Small Farms. The role will be working with Matt (the stockman) who is responsible for the livestock on the farm. We have a small beef suckler herd, 350 layers and have started a broiler enterprise this year; most of the produce is retailed directly to customers.

Responsibilities

- General animal welfare including organic solutions to common pests and diseases
- Planning and implementing livestock moves in line with regenerative practices, using electric mobile fencing
- Maintaining accurate records of stock movements, medication and illness as well as pasture analysis and management
- Poultry management and processing, both broiler and layer operations
- Silvopasture: planning, planting and maintaining trees in fields
- Upkeep and maintenance of farm equipment and infrastructure

Skills and Experience

- At least 2 years experience of working with livestock
- Experience of organic or pasture fed systems and of mob grazing
- Good communication and team-working skills
- Excellent organisational skills
- Pasture and soil testing and record keeping (e.g. Soilmentor, Sectormentor)
- A love of the land and a passion to work with nature
- Ability to work outside in all weathers
- A sense of humour
- Full UK driving licence
- IT skills

Salary

Real living wage, working 5 days per week (8 hour days)

Timeline

Application deadline: 24th August 2025
Rolling assessments: 28th July - 29th August 2025
Start Date: 1st September 2025
