

The Wildlife Trust of South and West Wales

Outreach and Engagement Officer

The Wildlife Trust of South and West Wales is seeking to recruit a Welsh speaking Outreach and Engagement Officer

Salary: £26,500 full-time (35 hours a week) fixed-term contract for 3 years.

5 days a week, flexible to include a regular weekend day

Location: The Welsh Wildlife Centre, Cilgerran, Pembrokeshire

This post will engage with a wider range of diverse audiences than ever before, developing partnerships, building trust, and co-creating innovative events and activities that use external activity providers as well as in-house skills. Your role involves working with our audience to understand the types of events and activities that will appeal to them, showing creativity and flair in delivery and planning the logistics. The programme will cover some week-days, weekends and bank holidays and offer a variety of activities focused on wildlife, arts and wellbeing.

The Welsh Wildlife Centre (WWC) at Teifi Marshes is an award-winning building that has been welcoming visitors to the Teifi Marshes nature reserve to learn about and enjoy wildlife since 1994. We have recently secured significant grants from the National Lottery Heritage Fund and the National Lottery Community Fund to improve accessibility and inclusivity.

Deadline: Friday 24th October 2024

Interviews: Thursday 6th November 2025

Invitations to interview will be sent to shortlisted applicants by Thursday 30th October
