Name of Employer: Crediton Milling Company

Vacancy Type: Permanent graduate Job

Full-time/Part time: Full-time job with a 40h week.

Start date: June/July

Background: Are you ready to kick-start your career in a fast-moving, hands-on agricultural sector? Crediton Milling Company is looking for a motivated and enthusiastic graduate to join our poultry team as a Trainee Poultry Specialist. This is an exciting opportunity to enter the UK egg and poultry industry at ground level and develop into a highly skilled specialist. You'll be joining a supportive and knowledgeable team who will help you build real expertise from day one. The role offers a blend of technical learning, on-farm experience, customer interaction, and commercial development. Perfect for someone who enjoys variety, working with people, and learning on the job. No two days will be the same. If you'd prefer to be out on farms rather than behind a desk, and you're looking for a long-term career with progression, this could be the perfect start.

The Role: In this field-based role, you'll help strengthen and grow Crediton Milling's presence in the UK poultry and egg sector. Your responsibilities will include:

- Working closely with two key agricultural colleges in Builth Wells and Oxford, helping develop and support our poultry teaching and outreach.
- Visiting farms regularly, building strong relationships with existing customers while identifying opportunities with new ones.
- Learning how to deliver practical, on-farm nutritional and management advice to help farmers improve bird performance, health, and profitability.
- Supporting the delivery of strategic customer partnerships that drive sustainable, profitable growth.
- Gaining confidence and technical ability through structured training, mentoring, and real-world field experience.
- Representing Crediton Milling professionally at all times while understanding and responding to customers' needs.

This is a varied, rewarding role that suits someone who enjoys problem-solving, meeting people, and taking responsibility early in their career.

Degree: N/A

Permanent/temporary: Permanent

Location: We are looking for a graduate that can be located between Bristol-Gloucester-Worcester that can work closely with your colleges in Builth wells and Oxford.

Personal requirements: We don't require previous poultry experience, just the right attitude and a willingness to learn. The ideal candidate will be:

- Independent, confident, and able to work effectively both alone and within a team.
- A strong communicator, comfortable building rapport with farmers, colleagues, and industry partners.
- Enthusiastic about developing a specialist career in the poultry sector.
- Adaptable, practical, and prepared to learn quickly with support from the company.
- A competent driver with a full, clean driving licence and comfortable with daily travel.

Other requirements:

Salary/Package: Competitive with a company vehicle
