

Job Opportunity: Graduate Surveyor

Salary: £25,000 - £30,000

Company: Auction Estates Ltd

Location: Nottingham

Reporting to: Paul Giles BSc(Hons) MRICS

About the Role

We are seeking a motivated and driven Graduate Property Surveyor or early career professional to join our growing team in Nottingham. As one of the regions leading RICS-regulated Auction Houses, we operate across the UK in a fast-paced environment handling commercial, residential and sales across the UK.

This is an excellent opportunity for a graduate or early-career professional looking to build a career within the property sector, gaining exposure across multiple asset types and a variety of public and private clients.

Key Responsibilities

- Assisting with property valuations and sales across commercial, residential and land assets
- Supporting auction preparation and property marketing activities
- Liaising with vendors, buyers, solicitors and professional advisors
- Handling client enquiries and assisting with property viewings
- Assisting with inspections comprising accurate measurements, photography and drone imagery
- Maintaining accurate property and client records within internal systems
- Assisting senior surveyors with client reporting and advisory work
- Supporting the wider team in delivering a successful auction

Candidate Requirements

- Full UK driving licence (essential)
- Undergraduate degree in Real Estate, Property Management or a related property discipline preferred
- Candidates with property industry experience or strong market knowledge will also be considered
- Highly motivated, ambitious and eager to develop professionally
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Good organisational skills with attention to detail
- Competent IT skills, including Microsoft Office applications
- Commercial awareness and professional approach to client interactions

- Willingness to travel for inspections and viewings where required

About Us

We are an RICS-regulated property auction firm specialising in the sale of commercial, residential and land across the UK. In 2025, we sold 230 properties, raising £37.8m. Our business works with private clients, public bodies, investors, developers, lenders and professional advisors across the UK property market.

We offer a dynamic and supportive working environment where motivated individuals can gain broad industry exposure and build a long-term career within the property sector.

What we offer

- Exposure to a wide range of property types and transactions
- Opportunity to develop appraisal and transactional experience
- Supportive team environment with direct exposure to senior professionals
- Career progression opportunities within a growing business
- Ongoing professional development and industry experience
- Competitive starting salary with future progression potential
