GRADUATE RURAL SURVEYOR

Lodge and Thomas are seeking to appoint a graduate Rural Surveyor to join our busy Truro office in the heart of Cornwall. The post will provide the opportunity to gain a broad range of experience whilst working towards qualification as a Rural Practice Chartered Surveyor through the RICS APC route, together with CAAV qualifications. Furthermore, the position offers excellent long-term career prospects and the opportunity to be part of an experienced team that prides itself on delivering a service of the highest standard.

The successful applicant will become part of our professional services department which undertakes a diverse range of rural professional work including: Valuation and Compensation work; Sales and Lettings; Landlord and Tenant consultancy; Management; Rural Planning; Basic Payment Scheme; Grant and Stewardship applications.

Lodge & Thomas is a multi-discipline firm which serves a broad client base across the County of Cornwall. In addition to providing professional services, we also operate busy Estate and Lettings Agency divisions, a separate antiques auction house and auction sales department, Truro Livestock Market with weekly auction sales of livestock, private treaty livestock sales, regular collective machinery sales, dispersal sales, and sales for the official receiver.

For the right candidate this role offers the opportunity to gain wide ranging experience and a fulfilling route to qualification, and further long-term career prospects.
