

We are recruiting!

For temporary positions, available from Mid-July through to end of September/early October.

Cefetra Ltd is a major trader of grains and animal feed raw materials in the UK and Ireland, handling 5 million tonnes annually with a turnover of £1 billion. Cefetra Grain has a sizeable presence in sourcing and marketing domestic grains with an infrastructure of regional offices, grain buying teams and storage facilities across the UK.

Grain Samplers Harvest 2021

Cefetra Grain are recruiting reliable individuals to assist in the sampling of grain on farms across the South/South West, East Anglia, Yorkshire and the Midlands for harvest 2021.

These temporary positions will be available from late-July through to end of September/early October and would suit a student looking to further their knowledge of agriculture.

The role will involve liaising with farmers and the office to plan grain sampling routes. Once on farm the candidate will have the physically active job of climbing up grain heaps and spearing combinable crops. The role involves a significant amount of driving and could also include some laboratory and office work.

Candidates will need to have a flexible approach to work, be prepared to work longer hours as necessary and be self-motivated. A company van will be supplied, and applicants must hold a full clean driver's license.

Laboratory Staff Harvest 2021

Cefetra Grain are recruiting a number of reliable individuals to assist in the testing of grains in two of their stores, the Wessex Store in Somerset and the Sudbury Store in Suffolk.

These temporary positions will be available from Mid-July through to end of September/early October and would suit students looking to further their knowledge of agriculture.

The role will involve the testing of samples from lorries delivering into the stores as well as the testing of samples collected from farms. Full training will be given prior to the start of harvest.

Candidates will need to have a flexible approach to work, be prepared to work longer hours, split shifts and weekends as necessary, and be self-motivated.
