

Exciting internship/Potential Full-time Position for an emerging disruptive start-up company.

ThoroughBid aims to develop and further enhance the sale of racehorses online via an industry leading multi-million-pound sales auction platform tailored specifically for thoroughbreds. Our timed auctions will feature 'best in class' functionality, whilst providing worldwide visibility via viral marketing campaigns utilising our industry database and multiple media channels. The company will offer unrivalled liquidity, efficiency, flexibility, and transparency to a market that desperately seeks evolution.

Job title

Intern/Junior Office Administrator

Opportunity

We are seeking a summer placement/intern which would suit a recent graduate with a love of racing/bloodstock.

ThoroughBid is based near Cirencester and seeks to disrupt and establish itself as the third auction house in the bloodstock industry.

The role would suit someone who lives nearby and is a self-starter with the ability to be able to assist all aspects of the day to day running of the company.

Qualities

- Strong organisational skills
- A good communicator
- Ability to work alone or part of a team
- An excellent attention to detail
- High level of computer literacy
- Experience and good working knowledge of racing and bloodstock

Experience

- Understanding of the racing industry and thoroughbred sales.

Please get in touch and send in your CV if you want to invest your time and effort into a fun, young and dynamic business looking to shake up the industry.
