Job Vacancy:

Great opportunity for two enthusiastic, hardworking candidates to assist on our family farm in South Lincolnshire growing potatoes, wheat, vining peas and daffodil bulbs between March and November 2022.

Description:

- Work will be varied and include (but will not be limited to) the following: land cultivation, irrigation, the carting of potatoes between the farmyard and the fields
- Experience of John Deere tractors is desirable, however, full training will be provided to enable you to become an integral part of the team
- Excellent rates of pay and accommodation provided.
- Suppers provided on harvest days.

During this period of time, successful applicants will be able to experience a full potato season. From land preparation and planting, irrigation and maintenance, all the way through to harvest and storage.

Applicants should send their CV (including mobile phone number) to james@fcravenandsons.com
