

Job Title:	Seasonal Field Surveyors
Closing Date:	Ongoing through 30 September 2023
Organisation:	Kingfisher Ecology Ltd
Full Time or Part Time:	Part Time
Location:	South England (various sites)
Accommodation supplied:	Where site work requires overnight stays, accommodation will be provided
Hours / Times of Job:	Flexible, including unsocial working hours
Salary:	Minimum £12/hour, increasing dependent upon experience
Benefits of the Job:	Training for protected species survey techniques including bats, reptiles, amphibians, breeding birds, badgers, dormice, water voles, otters and invertebrates. Experience can be put toward personal class European Protected Species Licences Training provided for ecological mitigation and ecological enhancements for protected species All on-the-job training will be provided by our friendly and experienced ecology team
Job requirements and description:	Primary job description: Undertake protected species surveys, protected species mitigation, Ecological Watching Briefs Requirements: A full, clean driver's licence and/or access to a vehicle is required as the position will require travel to sites across the south of England

Qualifications and Personal Qualities required:	A keen interest in ecology and a desire and ability to learn ecological survey techniques is essential Knowledge of current UK and EU legislation on protected species is desirable We are seeking confident, motivated and enthusiastic team players
More information:	Please forward a current CV with any relevant experience and proof of valid driver's license where applicable to the email address provided
Contact Name:	Tiffany Lewins
Email address:	info@kingfisherecology.co.uk
Postal Address:	Unit 2, The Business Centre Morgans Vale Road Redlynch, SP5 2HA
Contact telephone Number:	01725 513 999
Web site:	www.kingfisherecology.co.uk