The National Farmers' Union (NFU) is the biggest farming organisation in the UK. We're proud to make a difference for all our members, by shaping attitudes towards British farming and leading the charge on a range of major issues, from climate change and food standards to rural crime and broadband rollout.

Purpose of the role & how you will contribute:

Be at the forefront of shaping the future of UK supply chains. As a Student Placement in our Food Business Unit, you'll provide vital operational support under the guidance of the Food Business Adviser. Engage with top retailers, foodservice, and brand businesses to impact change across sectors such as dairy, livestock, and horticulture.

What you'll bring:

You'll currently be pursuing a degree in agriculture, business, or food-related fields. You have strong task completion skills, effective communication both written and verbal, and IT proficiency. Your passion for agriculture and food, along with your proactive problem-solving abilities, will be your greatest assets in this role.

Why choose us?

Join us and you'll find an organisation that encourages and enables you to achieve your full potential. In return you will be rewarded with a full range of benefits including:

- Generous holiday allowance (starting at 25 days a year pro rata + Bank Holidays, rising to 30 days pro rata with length of service), plus 1 annual Christmas company day
- Option to buy and sell up to 5 days annual leave
- Company funded health Cashplan
- Enhanced maternity, paternity and shared parental leave
- Performance-related pay
- Competitive Pension and Life Assurance
- Access to interest-free loans for cars, bikes, season tickets and driving lessons
- Employee Assistance program to help you deal with life's challenges
- Discounts on new a range of vehicles, holiday rentals, wellbeing and lifestyle and many more
- Attractive, modern office, with on-site restaurant and free parking

Please let me know if you require any further information.
