

Chippindales Industrial Placement (Agricultural Coordinator)

For the sixth consecutive year running, Chippindales is delighted to be able to offer this industry placement.

Chippindale Foods, part of Myton Food Group, is an innovative food company and leading supplier of free range shell and liquid eggs to the market. We work closely with over 65 producers to grade and pack over 650 million eggs per year at our state of the art grading facility in Knaresborough, Yorkshire. This placement will offer an interesting and varied learning experience and a fantastic opportunity for an individual to gain practical first hand experience of our vertically integrated and direct to source supply chain, together with developing an understanding of the work that goes into providing high quality products to our growing customer base.

As a business that is passionate and invested in future leaders, we believe that this Industrial Placement is one of the ways that we can offer an exciting career path, engaging with students that have a keen interest in becoming part of the future of the British Farming industry, and encouraging them to bring forward new ideas and support us in remaining at the forefront of egg production and processing.
